PROLOGUE

Once more Dame Custom has come out in gala dress,
And in stern tones demanded that a Junior class
Hurl to the students of "old Aggie" give their time
To gather in the old, the new, a tangled mass,
And placing it in order, as in years before,
Present a volume that shall be her pride; and help
To "Boost Old Aggie" to the highest place of all.
So that as years pass by, her fame may spread abroad,
And fill with pride those sons whom she doth call her own,
As they afar from her their many tasks perform.

Albert Vincent Osmin

In recognition of his quiet services to the students of
"Old Aggie," and in testimony to his worth as a man and to the value of his friendship, we dedicate
this book

Alvin Osmun

Albert Vincent Osmun

THE ALUMNUS, looking back upon his college life from the vantage point of his maturer years, sees many things to which as a student he was blind. He appreciates more clearly the difference between that popular acclaim which is but the impulse of a moment, to be destroyed by later impulse, and that enduring esteem and respect which registers true popularity. He understands more and more clearly with every passing year that the impression made by a strong teacher upon a student leaves a mark which can never be effaced, but which grows deeper as time passes. The college graduate will hold in memory longest those of his instructors who have thus given him something enduring, something which he has been able to carry away with him. Few have been more successful in this way than Professor Albert Vincent Osmun. There are many alumni, graduates of the past eight or nine years, and many students now in college who hold in grateful remembrance the time when in the field, in the laboratory, and in the classroom they first received from him that stimulus which has led them on to that understanding and enjoyment of Nature which knowledge gives to her close observers.

Professor Osmun was born in Danbury, Connecticut, in 1880, his father being at the time a business man of that place. After the usual preliminary training he entered the Connecticut Agricultural College, graduating from there in 1900. He then served two years as secretary to the president of that institution, at the same time continuing his botanical studies. In the fall of 1902 he came to Massachusetts, entering as a senior in the regular course, and graduating the following June with the class of 1903. Shortly after graduation he entered upon his duties as instructor in botany, and has remained on the teaching force of the Department of Botany ever since. Continuing his graduate work here, he received in 1905 the degree of Master of Science.

Professor Osmun has held several offices with the American Fern Society, and has been a frequent contributor to the Fern Bulletin and other botanical publications. He is at present treasurer of the Associate Alumni of the Massachusetts Agricultural College, and has occupied a like position with the local chapter of the Phi Kappa Phi. He assisted in organizing and has always been an active member of the Mettawampe club. But after everything is said, it is as a teacher that he is best known. His dignified and courteous treatment of his students, and the energy and enthusiasm which he gives to his work is an inspiration to all. To quote a student, "he makes the boys want to work," and than this nothing finer can be said of a teacher.

Professor Osmun's associates on the faculty of the College, his many friends in the town of Amherst, and all of the alumni of M. A. C. with whom he has come in contact, join with the class of Nineteen Fourteen in hoping that for many years to come Massachusetts may be able to keep in her service one so singularly well fitted for the post which he occupies.

Swiggles and Smart, the Parlor Athletes

WHAT? You don't know any girls? You've been here four years, too! . . . You're sure in hard luck! How would you like to come over the river to-night and see a 'queen'?"

"B'Jove I'd be mighty happy to go, y'know. I'm deucedly obliged to you! My word!"

"All right 'old chappie', you're on! Meet you on the 'seven thirty' or in front of the drug store."

"So long!"

"So long!"

"I'll have some real fun with Swiggles,—you can bet. I guess I'll call up the girls and explain the move."

"Well, it's seven thirty and no Swiggles in sight. I wonder if the 'hackney' took exception to what I said! I wonder if he understood me! Ah, there he comes all 'dollied out' for the affray."

"Oh deah! I'm all tired out y'know! I finished dinner late and——"

"A-L-L R-I-G-H-T! Get on the car and get a seat, we can listen to this 'line' later."

"Y'know I had dinner late——"

"A-L-L R-I-G-H-T!! Here's part of my paper! Read about the sports. This girl is a real 'sport' and likes all kinds of games. She is an enthusiast in foot-ball, base-ball, track, and hockey."

"Does she play socker, or tennis, or does she enjoy polo?"

"R-E-A-D T-H-E P-A-P-E-R!! (Oh what a bore!)"

"Say, don't those 'scallies' rush a man. They neahly threw me off of the car!"

"M-Y W-O-R-D! (I'm afraid this fellow will queer me.)"

"Say! Does this miss like to sit in a nook with a fellow?"

"I'm sure I can't say. (Wait 'till she sees it!) Get out one of your cards so we needn't wait."

"Heah it is, old man!"

"Mr. Claud Montmorency Swiggles! (Oi!)"

"Will you please give these two cards to Miss Julia Sheppard? Thank you!"

"This is a weal charming place, y'know!"

"Yes! (I guess I had better do it now.)"

"Good evening Mr. Smart."

"Oh, how do you do Mr. Smart?"

1914 INDEX 1914

"Good evening Miss Sheppard! And Miss Keegin too! You're looking charming. I should like to have you meet Mr. Claud Swiggles! Miss Sheppard, Miss Keegin."

"It gives me great pleasure indeed, y'know!"

"Really? How devilish you're getting, Claudie! You surely must have been a cute baby. Mr. Swiggles is from Wooton, England. Wouldn't you like to sit down Miss Sheppard?"

"I say Miss Keegin, let us also take seats. It's wather tiresome standing, y'know."

"Do you really want to have some fun, Miss Sheppard? We'll listen to Swiggles tell about himself. It will be worth half of your life."

"Y'know, Miss Keegin I came to "Aggie" with the class of 1913 and as for the Freshman year I only made a few acquaintances."

"He's off like a gun, now the fun is only beginning."

"You say that you made few acquaintances, Mr. Swiggles?"

"Well it was this way, y'know. All of the fellows had to study pretty hard. My word! Some of the boys that woomed at Kellogg's and at Whitmarshes' had loads of fun and all seem to be glad that they woomed there. It was so different that I expected heah. Oh dear, yes! I thot it might be something like Oxford, but it is so different. Do you know that they weally threw some of the fellows in the pond shortly after we awived. I thot then that this was mean to say the least. I'm weally glad that they didn't discover that I was such a 'gaudy' until I was a Sophomore. Well all of the things that we did are now classed as history, and they are so many. Weally!"

"You played on the foot-ball team I suppose, Mr. Swiggles."

"Oh deah no! I should feah that I would get killed. Deah, no, I was nevah made for rough work. But I managed to get past the Freshman Year. When I came back as a Sophomore I struck the worst studies that were imaginable. Neahly a half of the class thot that they'd be on their way, y'know. But all survived but a few of the poor unlucky 'pups' that were crushed in the crowd. I met some moah of the boys that year, and began to like the place a great deal moah. This year too was filled with tributes to our class, and we were sheltered by the wing of ouah friends, the faculty, that we passed."

"Say, Miss Sheppard the 'coekney' has a 'pretty fair line.'"

"Yes, Mr. Smart. He's not such a "dead-head."

"Ouah Junior yeah was the crowning yeah of ouah lives even aftah the time that we planted ouah tree. We showed them all that we were horticulturists. I weally do believe that we killed the bloomin' thing with ceah! Weally, Miss Keegin, I got 'bloomin' full' that night and I acted like a 'silly ass.' This yeah passed fastah than any preceeding yeah, and we had the best time that a bunch could have in any college. I would rather be a "sod-bustah" than any othah thing that I know of at present."

"Tell us about what you think of the Senior Year, Mr. Swiggles."

"Well, Miss Sheppard, I weally can't say. It's awfully satisfactory to be specializing. Few bally snags that a fellow runs up against but nothing to the ones that he meets in atfah life. Y'know, we ah' almost weady to be cast out to eithah sink oah swim. We ah' told that we ah the only ones that can do the swimming, and altho we've had the lessons we must swim for ourselvahs. Yes, we are surely touched with deep pathos as we think of leaving ouah Alma Mater. We, recruits to the army of life, full of hope, are about to be swung off on a tangent from the circle of classes. We have attained all but the last grade on the slope of ouah college careah, and all buoyant, expectant, we hope to view the pleasant sunset that we have attained by ouah hard work. As I look on the freshman buttons this year they appeah greenah, the buildings look moah inviting but it's all' in the game.' We must get out and make the city listen and stop its 'wattle and woah' because we believe that we ah about to cause a little agitation. You bet! Whether we do or not, we shall always say that 'Aggie' did the right thing for us, and I'm suah that the majohity will succeed if we judge by the class wecord in ouah Alma Mater. All of the fellows twied to live their lives in 'Aggie' so that the old weapah, Fathah Time, is sorry to see them leaving."

"Say, Miss Sheppard, that fellow is more of a man than I thot he was. I thot that we'd have some fun with him, but he has had as much fun with us, I do believe. That's the one trouble with college life. A fellow just begins to realize that there are a great many fellows in his class that he doesn't know as he should. Here for instance, is this man Swiggles that I always thot was a sort of 'cad' but he turns out to be a real good fellow in his way."

"Oh yes, Miss Keegin, now that I know some people oveh heah, I'll want to be heah all of the time. Do you know I always thot that Smart was a 'fresh scally,' but I am learning a whole pile my Senior year."

"Well boys, we hate to mention it but the ten o'clock bell rang some time ago. I guess we'll have to be saying "Good night" to you."

"Come on Swiggles, I guess we'd better be trying to get the 'ten thirty car.' Good night everybody! May we call again?'"

"Surely you may call again! Bring Mr. Swiggles! Good night!"

OUTSIDE—"Say Swiggles, you made a hit to-night. I really never thot that it was in you."

INSIDE "Hasn't M. A. C. progressed since our Freshman Year. As Mr. Swiggles would say "1913 did a bit, y'know!'"

Junior Class Members

Leslie Elmer Abbott Sandwich
10 North College; Pomology; Stockbridge Club; Class Track
(2)

The palm of being able to talk continuously from one to three hours and yet say nothing is universally accorded to Abbott. Exams are his pet line, and his "God darn it, if I'd only done this," or "I'd just misplaced one letter" is familiar to all. As a grouch, he ran a close second to our colleague, Clark, but Shaw doesn't think so!

Carl Murdough Allen, "Cal"

87 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; Chemistry; Mandolin Club;
Class Track (1, 2).

Who is that over there? Oh, that's "Cal", the Math. shark, all-around assistant to the Algebra-struck Fresh and the Physics-laden Sophomore. Carl's favorite occupation is plinking the mandolin in Cushman or Greenfield at sundry times during the musical club season. We all expect to see him some day demonstrate how to grow beets or turnips in air, by a special action of the elements, or some equally amazing thing.

Holyoke

Leslie Oscar Anderson, "Andy" Concord

Mt. Pleasant; Agricultural Education; Class Football (2).

Who have we here? Why, none other than "Bull" Anderson from Concord. "Bull" is a very prominent member of the International Mexican Athletic Union. As an imitator of Shakespeare's Shylock, he has no equal, and does everything from smashing baggage to selling tickets for Terpsy.

Warren Sears Baker, "Bake"

8 South College; Q. T. V.; ΘNE, Agriculture; Class Football (1, 2); Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Class President (2).

"Bake" is what we call him. One of his worst drawbacks is that he comes from Quincy, but even at that he is one of our pretty boys. He has a good conformation and is well proportioned around the valuable cuts. He "stuck around" during the summer vacation and became Forristall's Pet. But we have a lot of respect for him just because he showed good judgment in preferring 1914 to 1913. Second, he is a worker, not only as student, but as a football man, having played varsity for two years.

Wollaston

Harold Cotting Black, "Blackie"

Falmouth

Kappa Sigma House; KΣ; Landscape Gardening; Signal Board (2, 3); Advertising manager Dramatics (3); Landscape Art Club.

Blackie came to us last year from Worcester Tech to swell the red-headed tribe, and also the Amalgamated Society of Fussers, and under Brown's tutelage he is speedily reaching a high degree of efficiency in the noble art. He is pretty good with the books, and "Twees and Shwubs" already has a benevolent regard for him. We fear that Harold is going to prove a strong competitor for that class cup as he appeared on the campus this Fall displaying the badge of the Slaves of the Golden Circle. Such energy is to be commended, but we really think that he ought to give the rest of us half a chance at least.

pus this Fall displaying the badge of the Slaves of the Golden Circle. Such energy is to be commended, but we really think that he ought to give the rest of us half a chance at least.

Chester Story Bokelund, "Chesty"

Worcester

10 South College; KΓΦ; Roister Doisters; Manager Tennis (3); Artist, 1914 Index Board.

He stuck in this thumb
And pulled out a plum,
And cried, "What a great man am I."

So Sang "Chesty", his classic head thrown back, displaying the wonderful chest and mighty vocal chords. Matches are tabooed in his presence, and his landlady never has to heat his room. Football seemed to be his proper sphere, but alack!—even that could not quiet him, so he gave up and spends his time chasing "the makin's."

John Watling Bradley, "Brad"

Groton

20 South College; OX; Entomology; 1913 Class Hockey (2).

This pink-faced boy hails from Groton and rumor has it that the town is now in a state of coma owing to his absence. Take our word for it, John was once some wild boy, but since he decided to quit 1913 and join with the fortunes of 1914, he has followed the general example of his new classmates and quieted down considerably.

Ralph Stanley Bragg, "Braggo"

Milford

Mt. Pleasant; KE; Landscape; Orchestra (1, 2, 3); 1914 Prom Committee; 1914 Index Board.

Since coming to Amherst, we are not surprised that "Braggo's" native town is called Braggville. He is a hustling dollar-chaser if there ever was one, and when he and his partner, Hazen, get their heads together, you may be sure that someone is going to get stuck. There isn't the slightest doubt but what his ability to separate us from our coin will serve him well later. Although business, or shall we call it running a bucket-shop, is Ralph's forte, he is not averse to a little fussing on the side, and is one of those who make the Informals a success.

Harold Wil'iam Brewer, "Mike"

Scarsdale, N. Y.

7 North College; C. S. C.; Agriculture; Mandolin Club (3); Varsity Football (1, 2); Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (1, 2); Captain Class Football (2); Class Basketball (1, 2); Class Hockey (1); Class Baseball (1, 2); Captain Rope Pull (1); Class Captain (1); Burnham Eight (1); Junior Prom Committee.

Haw! Haw! Haw! Recognize him? It's rollicking, romping "Mike." Mt. Vernon certainly is proud of Washington, but fifty years hence, he will be forgotten and the children will point to an old gray haired man, and say, That's the man who drove the cook at ——— Hotel insane. Why he ate everything on the menu and then called for more. "Mike" wears the laurel wreath for athletics, but apparently manages to steer clear of the "bow and arrow." Well, we always did believe that it pays to stick to the "girl back home."

Arthur Winslow Brooks, "Art"

Beta Kappa Phi House; BKΦ; Chemistry.

"Arty" escaped Billy's clutches and promptly lost himself along with Prof. Noyes and all the rest of the boys in the lab. He essayed Informals once, but his success was so wonderful that it frightened him, and since then he religiously absents himself and pulls in his hooks at the slightest sign of danger.

Enfield

Harry Dunlap Brown, "Harry"

Lowell

Kappa Sigma House; KΣ; Pomology; Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Roister Doisters; Assistant Manager Musical Association (2, 3); Chairman Junior Prom Committee.

Here is the only thirty-third degree fusser in existence. His conquests are known in many colleges for the fair sex, and as for "over the river"—well, we will be charitable and draw the curtain. Of course, we can say some good things about this man; he is a hustler in class affairs and labors manfully with our vocal chords each June. Next to fussing Harry shines most brilliantly behind the footlights, and his talents in that direction have already been recognized by the Amherst Women's Club. "Baldy" hopes to make a pomologist out of him, and judging from Brownie's ability at catching peaches, he ought to succeed. We are already anticipating a trip to that Kentucky fruit farm.

Melville Bradford Calvert, "Jeff" New London, Conn.
58 Pleasant St.; Pomology.

Behold! Melville Bradford Calvert, the King of the Lilliputians, affectionately dubbed "Jeff." Jeff is right there with the comeback and will not stand any joshing. New London first endured him, until he developed roving tendencies. The C. V. R. R. turned him off at Amherst and here he has stuck ever since. Religious scruples are strong, leading him once to remark that riding in cars on Sunday tended to produce "pernicious influences on the motorman and conductor." We admire him for his devotion to the fair sex—and his grinding tendencies explain the mysterious sounds emanating from Pleasant Street early and late.

Malcolm David Campbell, "Camp" Harvard

Poultry Building; Poultry; Glee Club (2); Choir (2).

Malcolm's good looks weren't appreciated at Worcester Tech, so he came to M. A. C. where he was at once enrolled as a member of the 1914 Art Gallery. This is a tremendous handicap, but "Camp" is doing his best to overcome it by hibernating with the chickens, in hopes that some of the flying feathers will take root and hide that peaches and cream complexion.

Edward Wheeler Christie, "Ned" North Adams

Kappa Gamma Phi House; ΚΓΦ; Landscape; Class Basketball (2).

"Ned" blew in from North Adams two years ago closely followed by his other half,—namely, "Spike" Hadfield. For the first month, "Ned" was scarcely ever seen unless perhaps it was in the act of dodging around the corner of some building for he truly was a bashful boy. But what a difference a few years have made in him!!

George Clarence Churchill, "Clarence" Worcester

58 Pleasant St.; Pomology.

Greasiest of greasy grinds, that's about all we can say of this man. He has never been known to have his head out of a book except to sleep, and even then he probably slips one under the pillow in an effort to soak up the knowledge in that way. Knowledge may be power, but deliver us!

Ernest Samuel Clark, Jr., "Sam"

Tolland

82 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; Pomology; Rifle Club (1, 2); Class Cross Country (1); Signal Board (1, 2, 3); Business Manager 1914 Index.

One day, Mount Hermon's doors slowly opened, and a robust youth strode forth, who made his way to "Massaggie". "Sam" has made A-1 progress in all the courses including fussology. We understand that he is passing a very successful course in this at another institution not far away. Chasing "ads" seems to be his favorite occupation most of the time. "Sam" will be the happiest man on earth if the Index comes out above board.

Harold Johnson Clay "Henry"

Cambridge

21 Fearing St.; Pomology.

Mild old Cambridge woke one morn to find Henry on deck. A piece of Clay you say! Yea, but moulders clay, to be fitted and shaped, and his square corners are fast wearing away to fit the round hole of his existence among us. Pedagogical discussions delight him, and as for metaphysics—nothing to it—he eats 'em alive! His pious micu conceals considerable horse sense, and serves as a cloak to his well-known fussing ability.

Frank Jackson Clegg, "Frank"

Fall River

C. S. C. House; C. S. C.; Varsity Baseball (1); Class Baseball (1, 2); 1913 Class Rope Pull (1); Glee Club (1, 3); 1913 Class Sergeant-at-Arms (1).

Frank's the strong man of the class. You don't believe it? Ask him and see! The entomological bug died a sudden death this summer, and ani-m-i-l-e-s is occupying his attention just at present. Although an ex '13 man, Frank has always been strong for 1914 since joining our ranks.

Alfred Lynn Coe

Fayetteville, N. Y.

Beta Kappa Phi House; BK Φ; Landscape Gardening; Rifle Club; Class Track (1, 2); Class Cross Country (2, 3); 1914 Index Board.

"Never do to-day what you can do to-morrow" hits this youth in the mid-rib. Once you get him started, though, he makes a noise like vinegar pickles on a tear. Those "Belladonna orbs" pulled him through the round of Informals unscathed, but watch out, Alfred, and don't get caught out late alone on East Street.

Herbert Elmer Cole, "Herby"

Plant House; Floriculture; Stockbridge Club.

Hel—lo! is the musical greeting of this rough fellow as he whizzes by on his new 1913 model bicycle. Although older than most of us, "Herby" has to don corduroys and a class hat to prove to the freshmen that he is not one of them, but a real hard junior. While not running the Plant House, Herby is found at the Methodist church where he claims the fussing is as good as "over the river," and besides there is no carfare to pay. "Herby" is one of the boys who always appears in the catalogue with a small numeral after his name.

He blames "Squirt" for this, but—

Manchaug

David Augustus Coleman, "Gus" South Framingham

108 Pleasant St.; Chemistry.

This fellow is a sort of dark horse; we don't hear much about him, but like most such animals, we haven't a doubt but that he will be there at the finish. A would-be chemist, he showed his ironclad nerve by electing physics, a proceeding which calls for admiration on the part of us poor suckers who considered ourselves lucky to escape from the Chamber of Torture with our lives.

Lloyd Garrison Davies, "Chick"

Peabody

15 South College;  $\Phi\Sigma\K$ ;  $\text{ONE}$ ; Chemistry; Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Football (2); Class Basketball (1); Manager Class Basketball (2); Class Track (2); Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee; President Christian Association (3).

Tell the people of Peabody that "Chick" Davies is president of the M. A. C. Christian Association, and you will be voted into the local Ananias Club without hesitation. How he got this job is certainly the eighth wonder of the world. Lloyd didn't profit much by making the first splash in the pond for he is fresher now than the freshest freshman. While on the campus he is generally accompanied by "Mike" Brewer's "Haw! Haw! Haw!" In addition to all this, "Chick" is a necessary man on the baseball team, and is also a special student at Mt. Holyoke.

William Ashmun Davis, "Bill"

Northfield

Beta Kappa Phi House;  $\text{BK}\Phi$ ; Animal Husbandry; Stockbridge Club; Rifle Club; Class Track (2); Band (1, 2, 3).

"Bill" happened along one day and "Frosty" roped and threw him. Once branded, Bill reckoned he'd stay and grow up with the calves. The growing pains still trouble a bit, but they'll wear off in time. Bill has considerable potential energy, but transformers can't make it over into kinetic, so it's all wasted.

Ralph Edward Davis, "Dave"

Oxford, Conn.

77 Pleasant Street;  $\Sigma\Phi\text{E}$ ; Pomology.

Behold the King of Fussers! Why, Ralph has been known to make a trip clear across the State so as not to miss his Sunday night call. Those soulful brown eyes of his seem to have an especial charm for the eternal feminine. "Dave" can be seen almost any time moving swiftly through space on his "chug-chug"; and he will pass you out a line on that subject or any other, for that matter. "Talk, lordy, how he can talk!"

Newton Howard Dearing, "Newt" Brookline

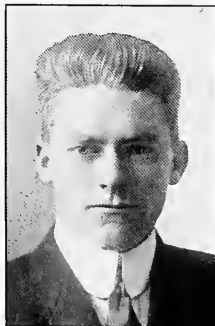

7 South College; Q. T. V.; Animal Husbandry; Manager Class Hockey (2); Burnham Eight (1).

"Newt" is his name, and he is sort of a "I don't know what you call it." He's a great man with the ladies, especially the Stenogs. They are his joy and his pleasure and he never lets the studies interfere with his pleasure. We do not know what his winning points are in the eyes of the fair ones, but anyway he fits. It may be his "line" which we must admit is all his own. He is the model of optimism and smiles best while others are cussing.

Robert Norton Demond, "Bob" North Adams

16 South College; ΘΣΚ; Agriculture.

A line reaching from here to North Adams, where he comes from, would not be quite as long as Bob's. We do not know where he got his license to talk, but his capacity is infinite. In spite of this fact, "Joe" finds time enough to get out of a few finals now and then. We might also add that without his support the college store could not long live in luxury.

Evans King Dexter, "Deck" Mattapoisett

Theta Chi House; ΘΧ; Pomology.

Blockie sure was taken into camp by this enterprising Cape Codder. To be sure, he can't drill, but he does love a game of tennis! It isn't everyone who can do it. Congratulations! However, he keeps the records straight and that's something.

Erving Walker Dunbar, "Dunnie" North Weymouth

116 Pleasant St.; Pomology.

Here we have the pluckiest chap on the campus; one whom we all admire for his nerve and perseverance. Although laboring under a handicap which would discourage an ordinary man, "Dunnie," always cheerful and smiling, has made good from the start. We haven't a doubt but that this same pluck which has characterized his efforts in college will hew a straight pathway for him in the outside world.

Almon Morley Edgerton, "Al"

West Springfield

13 South College; ΦΣΚ; Pomology; Varsity Football (1, 2, 3); Class Basketball (2); Class Baseball (1); Banquet Committee (1); Class Basketball, Captain (1, 2); Class President (3).

Another of the West Springfield gang! And he's the only real cutie who can propel a canoe and throw overhand. Once away from home, "Al" commenced to pick up amazingly till now he's loaded to the scuppers with sundry brands of information. On the "Macaroon Circuit" Al is stamped as a woman-hater, trailing rather than girling like a true captive. He probably imagines that at his age dining out and dancing wouldn't be entirely "hep."

Edward Clinton Edwards, "Ned"

Salem

16 South College; ΦΣΚ; ONE; Landscape Gardening; Class Football (1, 2); Class President (1); Landscape Art Club; Assistant Manager Track (3); Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee.

Because he comes from the Witch City "Ned" claims to be able to bewitch most any girl that comes along. He tried hard to get the position of class fusser, and gave Brown a pretty good rub for the place. As a "prof" bluffer "Ned" is almost a complete success, "Doc" Gordon being the only one who dared to "call". "Ned" is a strong believer in sartorial perfection, and he cuts quite a figure by appearing in public in his chocolate ice-cream trousers which are the envy of the campus sports, as well as the pride of his admirers.

Harold Lockwood Eldridge, "Harold" Wareham

College Store;  $\Theta X$ ; Animal Husbandry.

Since the Boston "Post's" "Mechanical Man" could not be procured to relieve Tit's arduous duties, Eldridge was substituted, and happily has made good with everybody, due, no doubt, to his sailing ability, for the waters of North boil and seethe periodically. He has been known to say "Damn" under extenuating circumstances, for which we are thankful. Without this opportunity we would never know that he varied the even tenor of his ways.

Stuart Brooks Foster, "Red" West Somerville

Kappa Sigma House;  $K\Sigma$ ; Chemistry; Signal (1, 2, 3); Editor-in-Chief, 1914 Index.

Lo, 'tis the big man himself! We would say more, but 'tis futile—his word is law! That blue pencil will inevitably pare our true conception—so we must exaggerate. "Stink Lab forever" is his slogan, and if he can manage to work Billy for a pass he bids fair to become a good experimenter. He has been tried many times and never found wanting, usually about Informal time.

Stanley Barron Freeborn, "Sambo" Ware

116 Pleasant Street; Q. T. V.;  $\Theta NE$ ; Horticulture; Manager Class Football (1); Burnham Eight (1); 1914 Index Board; Senate (3); Assistant Manager Football (3); Class President (2); Junior Prom. Committee.

Ware, Ware, for Stan Freeborn! He's a bashful young man—that is, all but his knees. They will persist in "cuddlin' up a little closer" and may be seen at their best in his new uniform. Husky, did you say? But how about his line? Can you beat it? Good enough to pull him out as our Prexy, and to hypnotize the football team into a manageable state.

Samuel Leavitt Freedman, "Sam" Roxbury

101 Pleasant Street; Floriculture; Class Cross Country (3).

"Sam" is the only original, bred-in-the-bone "gold dust twin" and like them is always ready to do you. Sam's head hangs pretty close to the books and his studious look comes perfectly natural. This captain of finance is owned body and soul by his wife, Levine. For further particulars apply there.

Carl Raymond Frye, "Tommie" South Hadley Falls

116 Pleasant Street; Class Track (1); Landscape Art Club.

A pair of indestructible dancing legs, surmounted by a pipe shoved back under a head guard. He's a "tough guy" and all the local chickadees are daffy over him, and you may be sure that when the first crash of music comes, "Carl" will be on the floor "with his hair in a braid."

George Fuller, "Full"

Deerfield

86 Pleasant Street; Agriculture.

1913 once more proved too tame, so Fuller waited until 1914 hove in sight and then hung on behind. So far, he sticks, and chances look good of his hanging to us until the Skins are passed around. Then he'll be Johnny-on-the-Spot, by which we do not mean he isn't always just at present!

William Gerald Griffin South Hadley Falls

35 E. Pleasant St.; KΓΦ; Catholic Club; Class Football (2)—1913; Varsity squad.

Thirteen couldn't hold him, so now we have him, and he is a welcome addition to our energetic bunch of "Boosters." Although far from being a Samson, his energy and pluck make up for his lack of "beef," and have earned for him a place in the football limelight.

Harold Frederick Hadfield, "Spike" North Adams

Kappa Gamma Phi House; KΓΦ; Landscape Gardening; Class Basketball (1, 2); Class Baseball (2).

When "Ned" decided to leave North Adams, "Spike" guessed he'd go along, too, and see a bit of the world. "Ned" succeeded in stopping him at M. A. C., and just now it looks as though they'd clean up Phi Kappa Phi as a result. "Spike" is the only Kid when it comes to basketball and baseball, for he can slap 'em over the pan with the best.

Ralph Ellis Handy, "Fat" Cataumet

10 North College; Animal Husbandry.

"A mighty Handy man to have round." So say all the Grangers, especially the fairer sex, with whom his prestige is already won. His chubby form makes a fitting appendage to the military corps, only sometimes he can't walk fast enough to keep up. Cheer up! Only one more year, "Tubby". Sid can't get you after this.

Rodney Wells Harris, "Rod"                      Wethersfield, Conn.

77 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; Agriculture; Class Basketball (1).

Rod followed cousin "Burt" up to Aggie, but soon after his landing he got "stuck" on Dave, and they have been inseparable ever since. Rod dislikes nothing more than work, and he is always willing to let somebody else do for him. Somehow, he has managed to slip by the exams, and he is still with us (sitting down).

Edward Leonard Hazen, "Ed"                      Springfield

Here lies the body of Edward L. Hazen
 Mouth almighty and teeth amazing!
 Stranger, tread lightly this grave o'er
 If he opens his mouth, you're a goner

By thunder!

"Push up forward, please, plenty of room up front!" It is the voice of our windiest, Ed. Ever since he first appeared in Springfield, he has been pushing up front, and we fear the front won't be big enough to hold him when he arrives, as he must inevitably.

Emory Blodgett Hebard                      Holland

3 Fearing Street; Animal Husbandry; Stockbridge Club.

This specimen was found in the wilds of Holland. No, he isn't a Dutchman, although he is about that speed. He can be seen every morning moving to Draper with the regularity of a clock. We hear it whispered that his mirror and hairbrush could tell tales of the many hours of nightly labor spent upon his chestnut tresses, smoothing them this way and that. Does this indicate that a "She" somewhere admires those same locks? We hesitate to say.

Frederick Heffron, "Freddy" Sherborn, Mass.

108 Pleasant Street; Agriculture; Stockbridge Club; Catholic Club; Class Hockey (1).

The class was treated to an immense surprise that memorable May morning when Heffron, hitherto a model of placidity, created havoc in the Sophomore ranks with his weighty pile-drivers, thereby earning our lasting respect and admiration. Perhaps living in Sherborn has made "Freddy" suspicious of the fair sex, at any rate, fussing seems to have no charms for him.

Lawrence Jagger Hogg, "Larry" Lawrence

Pease Avenue; Entomology; Orchestra; Class Track (1).

Lawrence is a native of Lawrence, the city of strikes. In fact, it is believed that he was one of the first to become dissatisfied with conditions there, for a few years ago, he "struck" and came to Amherst. Larry immediately fell in with "Fat" Taylor who trained him in the gentle art of rough-housing. After developing in this line as much as possible, Larry struck off into the dramatic world, where we understand that he is a success, because of his good "line."

Lewis Phillips Howard, "Kid" North Easton

19 Hallock Street; AXA; Chemistry; Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Class Secretary and Treasurer (1); Class Basketball (1).

When it comes to "lip" the "Kid" is certainly there. We defy anybody to compete with him both for long distance and noise. Without that slippery trombone, our poor old band would sure keel over forever. To be sure, it does occasionally slip now, but between "Jack" and "Kid" up she comes "bobbin' and scrappin'" every Wednesday. Kid's second suit is physics and it is rumored that our esteemed man of Butt bids fair to be displaced.

John Gouverneur Hutchinson, "Jack" Arlington

15 South College; ΦΣΚ; ΘΝΕ; Landscape Gardening; Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Varsity Hockey (1, 2); Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee; Manager Class Football (2); Class Football (1); Class Hockey (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2).

With apologies to George Ade:

Truly a Bachelor floun with Insolence and Pride is the favorite Mark for the Bow and Arrow kid. His familiar line of Chatter together with his emotional nature feeds itself on the latest song hits. Why should we blame this little "Brother of the Rich" for putting his undying Nerve into the market and getting what he can with it? Even the "Buckingham Palace" manner and the Swell Front cannot buffalo the idle Spectator into overlooking the fact that he belongs to the genus, Lemmon.

Earl Morris Ingham, "Earl"

86 Pleasant Street; Pomology.

After that famous Chem Lab serap, Ingham's name was changed to "Whangem" and several Seniors have good cause to remember the lusty bingles dealt by that able wing. Ordinarily, he is a quiet, peaceable chap, but when aroused, look out! A consistent worker, and a loyal classmate he has earned the respect of all who know him.

Granby

Loring Humphrey Jacobs, "Jake" Wellesley

25 Pleasant Street, Agriculture.

"Funny how quick a chap forgets, isn't it?" "Why, when I was in High School, Gee! I was some speedy!" Do you know him? It doesn't seem funny to forget when there's nothing to remember. Never mind, Jake, your "system" will pull you through top of the heap and Dana Hall shall have no cause to be ashamed of you. Caw! Caw!

1914 INDEX 1914

Herbert Hedge Jenney, "Herb" South Boston
6 Nutting Avenue; Poultry; Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Band (1, 2, 3).

There was born in old South Boston some thirty years before, a child, afflicted with the name of Herbert Jenney. And it came to pass that he grew and grew, until Boston cast him out, his wit (?) having become greater than that of his betters. In like manner did 1913 do away with him, and it befell 1914 to bear with him. Besides being a regular over the river, Jenney has been known to assist at certain church functions within Amherst, being conspicuous for his gallantry.

Rollin Eugene Johnson, "Spike" Templeton
120 Pleasant Street: AXA; Poultry.

Here's a clean cut ten penny "Spike," but Billy's hammer drove him hard and fast against a snag, and there he sticks. However, molecular readjustment will bring about a change of state soon—at least we hope so. The present state of his inertia needs some stimulant.

Dettmar Wentworth Jones, "Det" Melrose
9 South College; Q. T. V.; ONE; Entomology; Class Football (1); Class Hockey (1, 2); Varsity Hockey (1, 2); Class Sergeant-at-Arms (1); Class Secretary (2); Senate (3).

Hail to our hero! Some guy this Det. His many hobbies include fussing, hunting, hockey, and rough-housing, but must never try to catch a pig in an alley. Tree work is stuff he likes because the natural bow of his legs makes it easy to hold on and have both hands free to work.

Richard Fowler Leete, "Dick"      Mount Kisco, N. Y.

81 Pleasant Street; ΚΓΦ; Landscape.

Long, thin, and as inscrutable as the Sphinx, was this variety of the genus homo when it first appeared in Amherst, and to our knowledge, has not yet reformed. We imagine, however, that Dick greases the hinges of that necessary adjunct, his tongue, when calling on his favored one "over the river."

Henry Walter Levine

Boston

101 Pleasant Street; Floriculture.

Being Sammie's twin, all we can say about one is equally true of the other. We had nervous prostration after finishing "Sam" and don't care to repeat. We wish them all possible success and if there is anything in a name, the "Golddust twins" will surely get what they deserve.

Murray Danforth Lincoln, "Linc"      Raynham

19 Hallock Street; ΑΧΑ; Animal Husbandry; Stockbridge Club; Rope Pull (2); Senate (3); 1914 Index Board; Fraternity Conference (3); Junior Prom Committee; Band (1, 2, 3); Class Sergeant-at-Arms (1).

Behold, perhaps not the great emancipator of the black man, but the emancipator of the poor mortals called Sophomores from the toils of Norman's Horticulture Sleeping positions. "Linc" besides his gentle art of tickling the keys, has done more strenuous work on the rifle team, and perhaps the most strenuous of all—the Index.

Joseph Major, "Joe"

58 Pleasant Street; Agriculture.

Major is the only representative of New Jersey who knows enough to be modest about it. We never hear Joe cracking up this mud heap, although he claims it as his native place. Major's "major" is evidently work.

Frederick Grover Merkle, "Fred"

North East Street; Agronomy.

Every morning long before sunrise, Fred is to be seen trudging from his home in North East Street over the fields to college. He has one advantage over the rest of us, even if he does live so far off; namely, that he is excused from morning chapel.

Hoyt Dennis Lucas, "Luc"

West Springfield

1 Allen Street; Chemistry; Class Track (1, 2); Class Cross Country (1, 2).

Look! Gaze upon the sole existing descendant of the mighty Hermes. This speedy boy lives out his life upon the boards and cinders. Hoyt's oratorical organs are strongly inclined to assume that disagreeable and wholly undesirable habit of not knowing when to cease their eternal jabberings. He was put together a few feet at a time and then he grew. This gives him the appearance of a house built under like conditions.

Rutherford, N. J.

1914

Harold Ivory Morrison, "Soap"

77 Pleasant Street; Entomology.

This one made himself famous in our class meetings by declaring everything to be unparliamentary. Probably he couldn't fool the Bloke so well if he knew of his strenuous mountain climbing expeditions in the pursuit of geological knowledge. Harold is a great music lover and wastes his time rattling off classical stuff.

Melrose

Harold John Morse

Townsend

75 Pleasant Street; Agronomy; Captain Class Baseball (1); Band (1, 2, 3).

Morse is lucky enough to have a face that is a life preserver. The knowing and at the same time innocent noises that article can make have more than once pulled him through courses when the rest of us just barely got by with the hardest kind of work. When "Morsic" isn't busy fooling the Prof's, he usually may be found practicing in the Ski Hi House.

Lester Ward Needham, "Les"

Springfield

KΣ House; KΣ; Landscape Gardening; Varsity Hockey (1, 2); Class Hockey (1, 2); Class Track (1, 2); Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee; Senate (3); Class Vice-President (3); Fraternity Conference (3); Landscape Art Club.

Behold, Lester Ward Needham, hero of the Siege of Forristall. The Sophs used poor "Les" for a football that day, but he, being the original "Come Back Kid" came back so strong that Thirteen finally threw up the sponge. He is one of the lucky ones who managed to slide by Sophomore mid-years with a clean slate in spite of "Billy". In addition to "Need's" success with the books, he is one of that noble quartet which put Fourteen on the map by their skating ability. While we hesitate to condemn him as a fusser, evidence being slight, we feel quite certain that several fac-similies of his face might be discovered in a neighboring city.

Theodore Arthur Nicolet, "Ted"

Fall River

C. S. C. House; C. S. C.; Dairying; Class Hockey (2); Class Secretary (1); Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (1, 2, 3); Fraternity Conference (3); 1914 Index Board.

Those soul-stirring melodies which Ted's beloved cello evolves are still the main attraction when Jack's orchestra performs at Red Man's Hall. You can blame Brother Tell for inflicting this musicbox on us, as he was the method of transportation, but it will be useless. "Billy" is doing his best, but we feel sure that Fall River will prove too strong for him.

Tell William Nicolet, "Nic"

Fall River

C. S. C. House; C. S. C.; Landscape Gardening; Cercle Francis; Captain Class Track (1, 2); Varsity Track (2); Artist, 1914 Index Board.

De Soto, Indiana, wasn't big enough to hold him so they shipped him to Fall River where B. M. C. Durfee High endured him till '09. M. A. C. was selected as the next victim to fill his rapacious maw. This time he bit off quite as much as he could chew, which is going some! Prexy hopes to be able to keep college open after Tell leaves, but we are fearful.

Harry Nissen, "Niss"

Portland, Oregon

C. S. C. House; C. S. C.; Agriculture; Varsity Football (2, 3); Class Football (1, 2); Class Hockey (1, 2); Class Sergeant-at-Arms (2).

"Gros" was shipped from Norway when only three weeks old and landed at the port of Boston. He grew up there and prepared for M. A. C. at Mechanic Arts High. "Gros" takes great pride in showing visitors around college, but usually is most active in this respect on High School Day. Harry has played varsity football for two years, and can certainly "tear up their line." In class affairs "Gros" is always a loyal supporter and is interested in growing "big" apples out in Oregon when he graduates.

Leslie Howard Norton, "Red"

Newport, R. I.

Beta Kappa Phi House; BKΦ; Chemistry; Class Track (1, 2); Class Hockey (2).

"Red" decided to take a taxi to the gay life via South Amherst, and so far has attained the enviable reputation of being able to stir tea without spilling it, even in the dark. "Red" is a firm believer in the Moonlight Schedule as arranged by the Committee on regulations. His aspirations are track, and hockey, but neither season is long enough to permit full development of latent possibilities.

John Thomas Oertel

South Hadley Falls

116 Pleasant Street; Agriculture.

Here is a very quiet, shy boy who hides his light under a bushel most of the time. John is some English. His explanations of the wonders of the "Selected Reading" with Watty at the helm will long be remembered. He has also the proud distinction of being an "also ran" in Physics.

Raymond Edson Nute, "Nute"

Fall River

9 Fearing Street; AXA; Pomology.

"Nute's" one of those chaps who has a habit of knocking over the parlor furniture every time he moves. Somewhere in that dome, the wires are crossed, for so far he hasn't been able to make his brain and legs cooperate. He likes to keep his head cool, so never wears a hat. Good scheme, too, we think.

Roland A. Payne

North Amherst; Pomology.

Are we down-hearted? Impossible when Payne is on deck. Bubbling over with wit and humor (extra dry), he chases our frowns to the tall timbers, and smooths our furrowed brows, in fact the title of Class Jester is undisputably his. But beneath the frivolous surface, lie those good, sensible qualities which account for his popularity with the class and the Western Alumni Association.

Ervine Franklin Parker, "Park" Poquonock, Conn.

KΣ House; KΣ; Pomology; Mt. Hermon Club; Signal Board (2, 3); Class Vice-President (1).

"Park" was born with a sure 'nuff gold spoon in his mug, if we can judge from sundry contributions to the "Signal". He's one of those quiet guys, but Mt. Holyoke could tell some tales, if she dared speak. However, we won't give you away, so dream on, gentle youth, all things come to an end. We all join with the hope that the awakening will not be too harsh.

Wakefield

John Doubleday Pellett, "Jawn"

Worcester

16 North College; ΘΧ; Landscape Gardening; Assistant Manager Hockey (3); Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee; Fraternity Conference.

"Jawn" found Thirteen too fast for him, so he cast his lot with a good class, which undoubtedly was an excellent move, because since that day he has weathered all the storms which have beset our course without a care as to what Fate might have in store for him. Next to taking life easy, John's greatest delight is fussing, and his good looks have already earned for him a membership certificate to the Married Men's Club.

Chester Henry Peters, "Pete"      Brown's Station, N. Y.

116 Pleasant Street; Class Basketball (1); Class Track (2);
Class Hockey (2).

The squirrels will probably get this youth before long. It's a shame, but the higher they are the harder they fall. "Pete" will lead you to such dizzy heights that you'll need an aeroplane to come back to earth. He's lost his, so he's hopeless. Once he was a runner, but that was down in New York, and afraid to "show the boys up", he turned to hockey and fussing on the q. t.

Peverill Oscar Petersen, "Pete"

Concord

9 Fearing Street; AXA; Pomology; Band (1, 2, 3).

When "Andy" was given leave of absence from Concord Reformatory "Pete" was sent along as a guard. But Andy was too much for him, and the connection was soon severed. At drill, "Pev" holds a cornet to his mouth, thus adding to the general noise and leading the "Bloke" to believe that it is the equivalent of drill. "Pop" sticks pretty well to his books since he was "stuck" in physics by accident, and this year he intends to show "Billy" something.

Bennett Allen Porter, "Port"

Amherst

Animal Nutrition Barn; BKΦ; Entomology.

If you want to know anything, ask the "Chief". This product of the fertile soil of Amherst is the shining light of the strugglers through the reefs of the first two years. "Ben" will probably some day be found sitting at the bottom of the "pit" causing about two hundred other human beings to wear out their hands and pen-points, as he reels off the knowledge stored within him at a mile-a-minute rate.

Richard Henry Powers, "Dick" Malden

Veterinary Lab.; Q. T. V.; Agriculture; Varsity Football (1, 2); Rope Pull (2).

Hail to the father of 1914! Like the Delphian oracle of old, so he stands, always ready and willing to advise. His pet hobby is 1916, and bloated malefactors of wealth have come to fear his mighty wallops. His Terpischorean ability as displayed at the Social Union "stags", puts to shame the Informal devotees.

Frederick William Read, "Fred" Boston

Kappa Gamma Phi House; KΓΦ; Agricultural Education; Band; Dramatics (1, 2); Roister Doisters (3); Catholic Club; Fraternity Conference.

This "Bean-eater" is the joy and pride of the town tailoring establishments. No need to advertise in the Signal, Fred is an able substitute. This fact coupled with his knowledge of the art that made Demosthenes famous has favorably impressed the judges at our various oratorical contests. Small wonder that he slips by the Faculty when such learned gentlemen are fooled.

George Alexander Reid, "Bull" Worcester

Mt. Pleasant; Horticulture.

Act I.—Scene 1. (Stage setting) Train pulls into Worcester station. Distraught young lady paces up and down platform. Train stops. Dashing youth descends. They meet. (Curtain). The Worcester "Telegram" didn't hear about it, but the "Index" did, so the jig's up, "Bull."

1914 INDEX 1914

Alden Hesseltine Russell, "Russ"

Watertown

16 Pleasant Street; Pomology.

"Russ" is one of those lucky ones who get high marks without grinding; no doubt, the Profs are fooled by that studious air acquired in prep. school, and lost; that is, inwardly, during Freshman year. Nevertheless, in spite of the evil influences to which he was subjected that year, Alden is still a model youth, and has managed to keep on the narrow path, although we fear that he is developing a fondness for the weed.

Gabriel Arthur Sahr

Boston

15 Phillips Street; Pomology.

Here is the original salamander. Yes, gentlemen, this exhibit from the wilds of Scollay Square holds the International Pipe Smoker's Medal for quantity consumed, endurance, and general excellence. He owns more pipes than any other three members of the class. It is even rumored that he has them named and celebrates their birthdays. When George appears without one, the assembled multitudes will probably rise and uncover, some thoughtful individual will ring the chapel bell, and should the startling news get to Prexy, a general holiday will be declared.

Joel Powers Sherman, "Joe"

Hyannis

8 South College; Q. T. V.; ONE; Pomology; Varsity Baseball (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Class Hockey; Class Treasurer (2).

Smokey Joe! Rattle him? Impossible, my friend, nothing rattles him. His easy-going habits were acquired among the sand dunes of old Cape Cod where all he had to do was to cast his line out the window each morning for breakfast. To this exercise is attributed his development of that good old wing that Amherst will never cease to fear.

John Newton Shirley

South Duxbury

30 North Prospect Street; Chemistry; Class Track (2); Cross Country (2, 3).

The great "I am." First, last, and always. Take our advice and avoid a discussion with this boy for you will have to give in or get out. John is a hard pluggler, and he also manages to show his heels to the would be cross-country runners.

Francis Willard Small

120 Pleasant Street; Animal Husbandry.

The older inhabitants of a certain little town down on the Cape still talk about the great day in 1910 when Francis Small left for college. Why, the North Truro Military Band even turned out to see him off! Once entered into the promised land, he sought Blokik's protection, but Blokik thinks it's quite impossible to make a soldier of him. Still he houses him, for you never can tell!

North Truro

Leone Ernest Smith, "Smithy"

Leominster

116 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; Botany; Class Cross Country (2); Manager Class Track (2); Class President (1); 1914 Index Board; Fraternity Conference (3).

The convenient form of the initials of Smithy's handle were of untold annoyance to the beloved sophomores when, in the freshman year, they ran off with his namesake. Although usually of a quiet temperament, Leone can suddenly transform himself into a full-fledged roughouser of the worst type; at any rate he came from Leominster so he's excusable. His worst fault is trying to be a "would-be" lieutenant. Well, he holds down the ground behind the ranks anyway.

Leon Edgar Smith, "Smithy"

Boston

2 South College; C. S. C.; ONE; Landscape Gardening; Landscape Art Club; Captain Class Football (1); Class Football (2); Class Track (1, 2); Class Baseball (1, 2); Varsity Football (2, 3); Class Basketball (2); Assistant Manager Baseball (2); Manager Baseball (3); Class Vice-President (1); Chairman Sophomore-Senior Hop Committee (2); Banquet Committee (1); Class Treasurer (3).

Due to a case of mistaken identity, "Smithy" was among the missing when the chapel roll was taken the morning of the opening of the banquet season. He's back on the job with both feet now, however, "scrapin' land, prom'in' up an' down, bootin' the ball, and tackin' down bases for practise next Spring."

Arthur Eben Stevens, "Steve"

Brockton

Beta Kappa Phi House; BKΦ; Pomology; Class Cross-Country (2).

"Steve's" arid smile reminds you of a Harvard man out of his depth. When the moulting period terminates, the scales will drop off, maybe. Queerly enough, books appeal to him, and that degree looms up like a Standard Oil dividend. His collection of cigarette pictures has led to a wide acquaintance among the celebrities of the day. Where he got them and what became of the "nails" is a mystery.

Sarah Josephine Strange, "Joe"

Marshfield

Draper Hall; Landscape Gardening.

You have only to take a glance at the class picture to find out just how much we think of our bright and shining light. "Joe," as we call her when she isn't looking, is a loyal member of 1914 although we have detected evidence of a decided leaning in another direction. Someone said the other day, "Does he go to the Informals?" "Why, sure," was the reply. "Nothing Strange about that, is there?"

Munroe Gifford Tarbell, "Tit" Brimfield

10 North College; Landscape; Orchestra (1, 2); Rope Pull (2); Band (1, 2).

Fatty Spilliker in long trousers! Honestly, little girl, didn't you recognize him? This cartoon was evidently made of him during one of his calm and lucid moments but could the gentle readers see him in the midst of one of his tantrums in his Beauty Parlor, the College Store, or when he is dressed for his weekly trips to Smith, they would not marvel that his father offers a silent prayer to Allah every time he sees him, out of thankfulness to the fact that the game laws are still in effect.

Arthur Wright Taylor, "Fat" Feeding Hills

3 Nutting Avenue; Animal Husbandry; Rope Pull (2).

This large bunch of beef left Feeding Hills two years ago. Since then he has been feeding himself. It was a hard thing for "Fat" to leave home, as is evidenced by his bi-weekly visits to his native haunts. "Fat" made a good man on the rope pull team and would shine in football if he would only be willing to leave his books long enough. Last year "Fat" made the "three-decker" famous with his vociferous rough-housing. He owes his good health and strength to the fact that he wears neither hat nor coat during the winter months.

Leland Hart Taylor, "Leland" Peabody

13 South College; ΦΣΚ; Entomology; Burnham Eight (1); Class Secretary (2); Junior Prom Committee; 1914 Index Board.

"Leland's" general atmosphere makes you believe he has been embittered by the faithlessness of some creature. But when the Bon Tons get together for a real orgy, Leland always happens round, doubtless to deliver his famous address on "Whiskey and Its Effects." Interest on student deposits piled up so fast that "Shylock" couldn't handle the job alone, so called in Leland. Between the two, the dividends are small enough to keep the public quiet.

Arthur Searle Thurston

9 Fearing Street; BKΦ; Horticulture.

Arthur got the idea of "mixing" last summer, and since he returned he has mixed more than ever. He was one of the lucky ones, who sat on the right side of "Doc" Cance, and did not have to go through the tortures of his final. He also exhibited the same faculty in his dealings with the mighty Czar. Arthur doesn't say much, but he gets there just the same.

Everett

Alfred Leigh Tower, "Al"

94 Pleasant Street; Agricultural Education.

We have never been able to figure out how this man can be such a terrible fussar as he would have us believe. He must be trying emulate Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde because with us his name is synonymous with "grouch". It may be interesting to have two faces but we who remember the fate of the aforesaid gentlemen prefer one.

Sheffield

Ernest Franklin Upton, "Uppie"

Nutting Avenue; ΦΣΚ; Landscape Gardening; Signal Board (2, 3).

"Uppie's" ambition was shattered when he found he was not elected as laziest man in the class. His laziness consists mainly in never getting up in time for breakfast. "Uppie" has always been a good man to sit side of in Math. courses and came near leaving college when he found he could not major in that subject. We could enumerate other faults than this, but it would only bring out his good points, so we refrain.

Salem

Nathaniel Kennard Walker, "Nat"

Malden

16 North College; ΘΧ; Pomology.

This, gentle reader, is N. K. or just plain "Nat." Upon closer acquaintance you come to find he isn't so grouchy as he seems, his dazed expression being due, no doubt, to the incubus—"R. P." Once arrived, Nat wasted no time getting over the mountain and to-day is a doughty member of the faithful old guard. The rest of his routine consists of getting to classes on time.

Raymond Philip Walker, "Ray"

Taunton

87 Pleasant Street; ΘΧ; Pomology; Cercle Francais; Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Mandolin Club (2, 3).

This elongated specimen first drew smoke in Taunton and wise citizens, foreseeing a diminution of the supply, shipped him off to M. A. C. Without him the "baccy" department of the College Store would indeed be bankrupt. Among his other activities we must not forget the marvelous dexterity with which he handles a cue, and "16 ball back here" is to be heard almost any night from the precincts of the game room.

Raymond Winslow Warner, "Stubby"

Sunderland

77 Pleasant Street; Q. T. V.; Animal Husbandry; Class Cross Country (1, 3).

This little man rolled off Mt. Sugarloaf one day and couldn't stop till he struck this campus and he has been here ever since. He is noted for his smile which usually covers his map, but get him "riled" and he immediately develops four rows of teeth and then eats 'em alive as the facts of our class scraps show.

1914

Louis Armstrong Webster, "Web" Blackstone

82 Pleasant Street; AXA; Pomology; Stockbridge Club; Cercle Francais.

Being an ambitious cuss, "Web" quit high school early, and made tracks for M. A. C. He is our youngest and requires careful attention to overcome the lures of Hamp and Fuzzy's cigarettes. Nourished on a diet of Zoo and Physies, his condition is improving and there isn't a doubt of his getting a first mortgage on that bacon.

Arthur George Weigel

35 North Prospect Street; Chemistry.

Although this "Deutscher" hails from the "City of Strikes" we can hardly call him a member of the "I Won't Work" society. He says little, but manages to keep up with the procession. Weigel's fondness for Drill led him to take up his abode with the Bloke this year; no doubt he has a hankering for one of those tin swords.

Lawrence

Chester Eaton Wheeler, "Chet"

Lowell

87 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; Landscape Gardening; Cercle Francais; Roister Doisters; Class Track (1, 2); Signal Board (1, 2, 3); 1914 Index Board; Class Historian (1, 2, 3).

"Chet" was cut out for a missionary and selected M. A. C. as a likely field. Here, he has labored with Blok's understudies for two years, and is still at it, trying to show us how they did it in Lowell. His "Signal" efforts are worthy of commendation and we are sure that he'll be a help to his mother when he grows up.

Burton Clark Whidden, "Liz" Waltham

81 Pleasant Street; Pomology; Roister Doisters.

Hear that distressed sigh? Sure, who heaved it? Oh, that's Lizzie thinking. "Liz" doesn't get cold feet often, but ask him about the time he woke up in the morning with six inches of snow to hold them down. Although of very quiet demeanor a great deal of the time, he can develop rapidly into a whirlwind rough-houser, and when in this mood, look out for he has been known to pull a bathtub up by the roots in his excitement. "Off with the old, and on with the new" is his motto.

Charles Warren Whippen, "Whip" Lynn

Kappa Gamma Phi House; KΓΦ; Chemistry.

A change being always beneficial, "Whip" pulled stakes and camped anew at Aggie. The present outlook indicates that some day he may swing his pedal extremities from a hallowed fence along with the rest of the lucky ones.

John Govan Wing, "Jack" Somerville

116 Pleasant Street; ΣΦΕ; ΘΝΕ; Rope Pull (2); Class Baseball (1, 2).

Jack comes from Somerville with all its other baseball men. This game-room ornament is some there with the twirling stuff, and he works off his energy in the winter indoors at giving instructions in the gentle art of being a pool shark. This variety can be distinguished from the rest of his species by its lazy walk, which although apparently slow, gets him there just the same. Maybe he can't tickle the ivories some. Just give him half a chance.

Henry Joseph Wood, "Hen"

Mendon

82 Pleasant Street; Animal Husbandry; Glee Club; Stock-bridge Club; Class Football (2).

"Hen's" homing characteristic is so well developed that "Hen" is a misnomer. All during his Freshman year he fully believed he was misunderstood, and the impression is just beginning to wear away. "Bucket" trains steadily during the season and works hard to boost the teams. So far as we know, he has not been inoculated with love bacillus, but you can't always sometimes tell.

1915 History

Wanted!

ONE hundred eighty men for the chorus of "The Follies Of 1915". Tryouts will be held in June and September.

(Signed) 'Prexy' and Faculty, Managers.

In response to the above advertisement, one hundred seventy eight 'stage struck' youths appeared before "Prexy and Faculty" to have their voices tried out. Of these, one hundred seventy four were chosen. Rehearsals began at once in the M. A. C. Opera House, under the direction of 1914, and for six long, weary months were continued. To break up the monotony, there were numerous disagreements with 1914—in the majority of which we won out. We showed our keen insight into the ways of life at the very outset of our career by obtaining a 'drag' with the director and by using it for all it was worth.

When dress rehearsals began, we were a bit disappointed in our costumes. In place of the 'flossy', be-spangled affairs which we had expected, a 'night shirt' and a very modest black 'sky piece' with a resplendent green button was our only ward-robe. This costume we were forced to wear during the first part of Act I.—much to our personal disgust.

By the first of January, we began to look forward to our 'first night'. The managers had made arrangements to 'try us out on the dog', as it were, before opening up on Broadway. The first week in February, we were to travel, playing six 'one night stands'. For the entire month of January, we were nearly worked to death and much 'mid-night oil' was burned. Those who had let their 'parts' 'slide' now 'plugged' early and late. Everyone was seized with a fit of nervousness—more of expectancy than fear however.

All too soon the day of our initial performance arrived and we were obliged 'to go on' with the ever-present thought that more time might have been well spent in further preparation. The orchestra banged away, and the curtain rose. 'Out front', we saw the managers and critics in the nearest boxes, while the populace was scattered over the rest of the house. Each individual felt that 'it was up to him' to 'do or die'—only a few died. By the end of the week, we were a thoroughly tired and nerve-racked bunch of 'hams' and mighty glad of the few days of rest which followed.

Time moved on a pace until May. By this time, the ideal spring weather had set in, and 1914 invited us to give an 'open air' performance—the proceeds to go towards a new 'chem' Lab. We agreed willingly enough but it turned out much the same as did Mrs. Vanderbilt's affair with 'The Merry Princess' at Newport last summer. Instead of meeting us half way, 1914 made us walk the entire distance—down town; and instead of commodious dressing-rooms, we had to make use of a dark alley. Nevertheless, the performance was entirely satisfactory, and we bear 1914 no malice.

In June, we were given a 'try-out' on a second-class circuit, before opening in New York. For another week, we were under the double scrutiny of the public and of our managers. Owing to various things, over which they had no control of course, several members 'lost their voice' and had to abandon their stage careers.

Then, the show broke up for the summer and most of us spent our time pacing up and down Broadway, trying to sign a contract with some summer show. A few were successful, the others spending the summer at swell watering places or in the mountains—in the capacity of 'bell-hops'.

By the first of September, we were back in the 'big city' for a week's rehearsal. On September eleventh, the great day of our lives dawned—the dream of our lives came true—we opened at the 'Aggieodrome' on 'the great white way' for a three year's run. We had passed through all the trials and tribulations of 'prep' and were now a firmly established musical comedy that had come to stay.

Imagine our surprise on the morning we were to 'open', to find the town literally 'painted green' with bill-posters announcing the existence of a cheap moving picture show, which had been set up as our rival. The impudence seemed incredible, but was nevertheless unexcusable and we set out at once to convince the concern with the one thousand nine hundred sixteen feet of blank film that their proper location was several blocks nearer the 'East Side' of the city. It took little or no argument to convince them.

Such is our history up to date. Upon the threshold of a successful career, we face the future with joyful expectancy. May 'The Follies of 1915' never become a thing of the past as have other 'Follies', but always play the 'leading role' in the great drama entitled 'College Life At M. A. C.'

Letters From a Self-Made Freshman to His Parents

Dearest Mama:—

Amherst, Sept. 15.

I arrived safely in Amherst after a long, lonesome journey on the train. Oh, my, but I wish you were here to spend the first few weeks with me, for I am sure I will be very homesick. I have had several terrible experiences since I last saw you. Wednesday night several Sophomores made me stand in front of the Amherst House and talk and sing for a long time. I was so embarrassed I hardly could open my mouth, but I managed to satisfy my tormentors.

I don't believe I shall enjoy my life here at all. The first day, when I registered, "Billy" Hasbrouck, that's our registrar, actually told me to keep quiet when I started to tell him about my family history. The worst of it is I shall probably have him for "trig" next semester, and I am sure he will "stick" me. Thursday night a little roughhouse occurred which nearly carried away your beloved son. Nearly all of our class were down in the lot back of the college barns, practising for the six man rope-pull, when suddenly a howling mob of Sophs descended upon us from all points of the compass; why they actually jumped on us and pounded us with their fists. Before it was over I really thought I should die.

Friday afternoon the greatest event of the year came off—the annual Freshman-Sophomore rope-pull across the pond. I suppose you have read in the papers how our team pulled for twenty seven minutes and were preparing to pull twenty seven more when it was called off by the referee. Of course I didn't enter this, for you know how frail and delicate my constitution is. Last night the night-shirt parade made a fitting climax for the week. We marched all over town yelling "Green" and when we could not yell any more we sang, "How Green I am". To-day my throat feels like a piece of wood. Last night I thought I should go straight home to-day and get away from this horrid place but I guess I will stick it out. Perhaps there will be good times coming. Well, I must stop and do my lessons for to-morrow.

Ever your dutiful son, WILLIE.

Dear Father:—

Amherst, Sept. 22.

If I gave you the impression in my last letter that I was having a hard time up here, please forget it, for I have changed my mind completely. This is the best college in New England. The spirit shown in yesterday's football game clinched my opinion, so that I am now an "Aggie" man, through and through.

Yesterday afternoon, just before the game, the six-man rope pull between picked teams of Freshmen and Sophomores, took place. Although our six men outweighed the Soph's, they had not had the experience, and the other team took all the rope they wanted and then some. However, we will get them when the football game comes off. Perhaps the air wont be full of smoke that day.

Many thanks for that check you sent. It has surely come in handy in more ways than one. Most of it has already gone to pay up my debts and perhaps you had better send another next week. I never saw a place where money went so fast. As I have a "date" to-night I must stop writing.

Hastily, WILLIAM.

Dear Ma:—

Amherst, Oct. 6.

I hope you will forgive me for not writing last week but I really couldn't find the time. There is nothing very interesting to write about except a little affair that came off the first of last week. Three fresh Freshmen were baptized in the pond. Now perhaps that doesn't sound nice to you, but it certainly seemed nice to us one hundred seventy four other "Fresh" who were standing afar off, gazing on the scene and thanking our lucky stars that we were not one of the three unlucky ones.

A week ago Tuesday morning, at seven a. m. we had our class picture taken on the chapel steps. Notwithstanding the fact that a few Sophs tried to start something, we had sixty five per cent of the class in the picture.

Next Saturday comes the first Informal and the last home football game. I expect to attend both. To-night I go "fussing" to 'Hamp. Perhaps you don't know what this means, but if you ask Pa I think he can guess.

Lovingly, WILL.

Dear Pop:—

Amherst, Oct. 13.

If you have any extra money down there, please ship it along for I am on my last dollar. This letter is just a word to let you know that I had a corking time yesterday. Gosh, but I had a peach of a girl. She surely is one queen; but all this "kiteing" around doesn't pay and I have decided to buckle down and work; not only for my own good but for the welfare of the class of 1916 and M. A. C.

Hastily, BILL.

Football

HUS far, only two of this season's scheduled games have been played, and in both we have distinctly had an advantage over our opponents, yet we have lost and tied respectively with Rhode Island state and Union. We have a light team with lots of speed and energy. From a casual observer's standpoint the teams of the last few years have lacked the one essential of a successful team—the right mental attitude.

A physically fit and properly coached team will invariably fall down if it goes into a contest with merely the hope of "holding" the opponents. This year's team has the mental attitude that recognizes no superior in the field, with the result that it possesses the fight and "come-back" that has been lacking for the past few years.

The coaching system has been changed so that instead of having each season mark the advent of a distinct method, a coach, under contract for three years, has under way a constructive policy of coaching which is sure to develop and hold the material as it enters.

Dr. Arthur E. Brides

FOR the last few years "Aggie" has not seemed to be able to send out a winning football team, even though the material at the beginning of the season has been such as to lead us to hope for a strong team. Many reasons have been advanced to account for this fact, but the most plausible of these seems to be that we have continually been changing coaches and thus there has been no system whatever in the development of strong men from the Freshman class.

Last spring, however, it was decided to engage a coach for a period of years in order that we might develop a system such as is in vogue in all the large colleges. Thanks to the efforts of Manager Covill, Dr. Brides was secured, and that he is pre-eminently fitted to build up such a system and develop a good team can be seen in his results here this Fall and in his record before coming to "Aggie."

Dr. Brides was born October 31, 1885, in Brockton, Mass. He attended the Brockton High school where he played full-back and guard on the football team for three years and was Captain of the team for his last two years there. From Brockton, he went to Williston where he played full-back for two years. After being graduated from Williston he entered Yale University. Here his football ability was immediately recognized as he easily made the fast Freshman team, playing both the positions of guard and full-back. The next fall, he made the Varsity and played on the team for three years. That he knows football from beginning to end is shown by the fact that he played every position on the team except quarter-back and made good in all of them. Besides playing football, Dr. Brides was on the wrestling team his second year and also made the basketball and baseball teams.

Dr. Brides has not, however, had playing experience only, but has had coaching experience as well. He coached North Carolina successfully for two years and was a coach at his Alma Mater last year. There he made such a good record that he is to-day rated among the best of college football coaches. That he will make good at M. A. C. is very certain, and we all wish him the best of success during his stay here.

Baseball

“BILLY” Fitzmaurice’s regulars were an aggregation of ball tossers that struck fear in the hearts of more than one camp of baseball collegians last year. The team was practically a veteran one, the only loss being that of Piper at third base, whose position was filled by Covill who, although not a regular in 1911, was already an “M” man. New material was slow in showing up, especially from the upper classes, owing no doubt, to the apparent lack of open positions to be contested. This was by no means a commendable spirit. The season was eminently successful, not only in victories, but in the spirit of the team which was one of co-operation and loyalty.

Next year’s prospects are bright. We lose three players, but the freshman class promises some choice material. With Captain “Sam” Huntington to catch “Smoky Joe” Sherman, we have a promising battery, and with an infield and outfield capable of handling the finest in the land, we are looking for a notable season. Practise is to start soon after January first, and with Coach “Billy” Fitzmaurice regularly installed as an assistant in the physical department, we have a coach whose experience is almost with out a par in the coaching profession today, and whose reputation for “fitting” with the student body has never been surpassed at Aggie.

Hockey

THE season of 1911 fairly set the hockey team of M. A. C. among the best in the country. The season of 1912 was full of the brightest prospects, but gloom overtook the team. This was due to a surprising increase in the outside study which kept from one to four sophomores out of every game except that with Amherst. In spite of this fact, the team did exceedingly good work. On a later page is shown the schedule which should easily have been a clear slate for the Aggie team if reasonable treatment had been received in the application of the eligibility rule.

The prospects are excellent for this season. Captain Hutchinson has Jones to help him in the forward line, with Needham and Mgr. Little as veteran defence men. This is a nucleus for a wonderful team.

Track---Review of the Year

THE season of 1911-1912 with its numerous difficulties, can be considered a shade more successful than that of the previous year. Two new intercollegiate events have been introduced, those of cross-country runs and outdoor track. With L. S. Dickinson '10 as coach, and a speedy leader in the person of Capt. Clapp, a fast indoor team was soon realized. At the Coast Artillery meet, the relay team beat out Tufts and at the B. A. A. they won, for the fourth consecutive time, from Worcester "Tech". At the Columbia Indoor Relay Carnival, the relay team was beaten only by Fordham. The only indoor meet of the season held in Amherst was with Wesleyan, and the meet was lost by M. A. C., by the toss of the coin, because of a tie score 34-34. The last race of the season was lost to Brown at the Hartford Armory in very fast time.

Manager Beers introduced for the first time outdoor track, but without a track and facilities for the work, the best teams could not be had. A triangular meet with W. P. I. and Rensselaer at Worcester took place, where M. A. C. came out with second place. One other meet was held with Vermont, and unfortunate accidents turned the tide against us. There was however one very encouraging feature of the outdoor season, which was the annual inter-class outdoor meet, where seven of the college records were smashed.

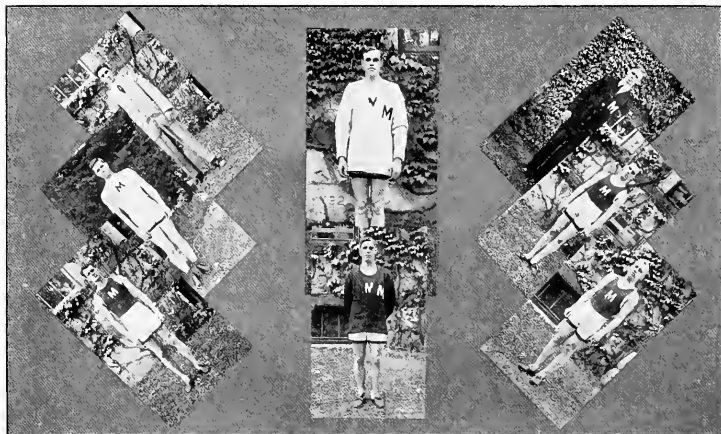

CAPTAIN WHITNEY

The other optimistic feature of the year was the promising outlook for cross-country running. One meet was held here at Amherst where Tufts was defeated. This coming year shows a bright aspect in this department with three cross-country runs in view. Very promising candidates for track have appeared in the incoming class and this season bids fair to surpass all others.

Tennis

As a whole, the 1912 tennis season was a disappointment. There was little material of varsity calibre in college, and unfavorable weather conditions interfered with practice and matches throughout the season.

The first tournament, with Springfield, was an easy victory for M. A. C. The Williams match, after postponement due to rain, was taken by the fast Purple team. Dartmouth took the measure of our racket men the following day, and the Vermont game came to an untimely end in a driving rain. Two practise matches with the Holyoke Canoe club were easily won by Massachusetts, and the Connecticut Aggie game was forfeited to us. The Trinity match was left unfinished by the rain, with Trinity on the long end. Rains again interfered with the schedule when, with the Springfield courts flooded, efforts to bring Springfield to Amherst again proved unavailing and the match was cancelled, ending the season with but two players and the manager eligible for the tMt.

Freshmen Win Rope Pull.

The Agricultural college freshmen won the annual rope-pull this afternoon, dragging the sophomores through the college pond. A crowd of several hundreds of people coming to the grounds in special trolley cars, automobiles and other vehicles and on foot lined the banks of the pond. There were 60 sophomores under Capt. Dennis A. Sheehan of South Lincoln on the east side of the pond and an equal number of freshmen, led by Capt. Harold Brewer of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., on the west side. The rope was 800 feet long and 1-4 inches in diameter. The rules allowed the use of rosin on the hand and making holes with the foot in the ground, but prohibited falling on the rope.

Prof. Clarence E. Gordon, referee, fired the signal shot at 4.31 when the freshmen immediately began to pull on the rope and never lost an inch. In four minutes the first sophomore

'Varsity Timber Doesn't Help "Aggie" Sophomores Much.

The annual sophomore-freshman football game at the Massachusetts agricultural college was pulled off yesterday afternoon and the freshmen came forth the conquerors, 17 to 0. Although in the sophomore line-up there were eight varsity men, the lower class went into the game with a spirit which meant nothing but victory. Never has a team worked the forward pass more successfully than did the freshmen yesterday. Each time it was this play that led to a touchdown, and it was only during the last period that the opposing backfield could break it up. On the defensive the freshmen were also strong and held the "sophs" for downs on four different occasions, once on their own 10-yard line when a touchdown seemed inevitable. Capt. Smith of the freshmen played a cool,

WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES

Rifle Club

Review of the Season

TO hold one cup for three successive years, with an everchanging team, is a record to be proud of. This is true of the rifle team which again, the last season won the intercollegiate indoor championship of the United States. The team, of practically all new men, led by Captain Lloyd, and coached by Corporal Major of the Marine Corps, made a splendid record. To the coach is due the very high efficiency and steadiness of the members of the team.

The league of college rifle teams was divided for the season of indoor shooting, and all teams of the East were in one league, and those of the West in another. This simplified the work at Washington and incidentally allowed more teams to enter. Iowa won the Western championship with no defeats, as did Massachusetts, the Eastern championship, with an equally clean slate. In the shoot-off match, the "Aggie" boys made the remarkable score of 973 out of a possible 1000, the scores of the five highest men counting. On the basis of the previous year's score, this represented a score of 1946 out of 2000. In this match, Forbush, who had shot well up to the time was not represented. Edminster made the highest individual score, and the team made the highest team score for either league. In the outdoor shoot our boys were defeated by Harvard, after holding the trophy for two years.

Under Captain Edminster, the team is sure to have a successful season, and the apparent good showing from the entering class, prophecies the retention of the indoor trophy, and also the returning of the outdoor trophy to M. A. C. Besides Captain Edminster, the veterans in college are: McDougall, Forbush, Griggs, Clarke, Hyde, and Whitmore.

The members of the team have finally after much discussion been awarded the R. M. T. which may be worn on the hat, but not on the sweater or jersey.

THOMAS CANAVAN

In Memoriam

Thomas Canavan

In the death of Mr. Thomas Canavan which occurred July 14, 1912, the Massachusetts Agricultural College and those connected with it sustained the loss of a faithful servant and loyal friend. He was here in 1867 when the college first opened its doors to students, and remained active in its service until a few months before his decease. Thus he was personally and intimately acquainted with the development of the institution from the very date of its founding; he witnessed all the varying fortunes of its early existence; he saw finally that its history had essentially been one of progress; and he lived to enjoy what was denied to many of the pioneers in the work of building up the institution: namely, the realization that at last the college had become securely established as an educational institution of foremost rank.

Mr. Canavan was born at Roscommon, Ireland; although the exact date of his birth is not known, it is thought by his relatives that he lived to be about eighty years of age. While he was a young man he left Ireland, came directly to Amherst, and here spent fifty-seven years of his life. Soon after he came to Amherst, he was engaged as gardener by Col. William S. Clark who at that time owned the beautiful estate on Mount Pleasant which still bears his name. After Col. Clark became president of the college, Mr. Canavan was placed in charge of the Durfee plant houses, and subsequently he was made janitor of the college buildings.

He proved himself to be an efficient, trustworthy and devoted workman; with students he was tactful, fair, sympathetic, and always enjoyed their good will and high respect. Until very recent years he gained a personal acquaintance with every student; his kindly interest in them individually, and his genuine interest in their activities, endeared him to them all. At the time of the last baseball contest with Amherst, Mr. Canavan was not strong enough to walk to Pratt Field, but he procured a carriage and was seen in a conspicuous place among the spectators.

Mr. Canavan's familiar figure and genial personality is missed this autumn by his many friends among the students and college officers, and it will long be missed by those of former days, as they return to their Alma Mater, with whom the influence and memory of his well directed life still remain.

Law of Diminishing Returns

Study: an industry of diminishing returns.

If time and energy, in increasing amounts, be expended on any course, a point will be reached beyond which each additional expenditure of energy and time will yield a smaller return in marks and finally the additional return in knowledge or marks will not be worth the time or energy expended.

No Doubt, Billy

Billy to class: Constant dropping of water will wear away a stone; but I don't see that constant banging of ideas ever penetrates your skulls.

HERE AT LAST!

ALLEN & BIRDSALL'S

OWL WAGON

Realizing the demand for a lunch emporium near the campus, we have undertaken to establish a pure food parlor, where one can divert one's dreary doldrums when doleful or downcast by drinking a dram of a delightful, discriminative decoction called Coffee—a nutritious nectar

We also serve a delectable dewy dog. All to the mustard

Our milk is not secured from the Trust, and contains no watered stock

Our ham is cured, and is not subject to a relapse

Our eggs are fresh. We have just laid them—in stock

And our beans. Shades of beloved Boston! They speak for them selves.

We have no sympathy for the lazy man, but we do pity the man who is "born tired." Frank Hickey and Joe Harlow have been begging us for the past two months to "hurry that bese wagon along." Henceforth after a strenuous sojire, one can secure sweet, salubrious sleep "tue morning after" without fear of fasting until noon

Said a chap at Mass. Aggie, "I'm thin,
You can see all my bones thru my skin,
What I need is a feed
At Allen & Birdsall's New Inn."

Weather Forecaster Hallowell, who is hired by the college, and has no reputation as a divinator to sustain, states that Thursday will be fair if it is not stormy, that it may be cold provided the temperature does not rise above zero. But fair or stormy, warm or cold, the Aggie Lunch will be open to receive members of the Starvation Army and any others who need light refreshments.

Remember this is a "pay as you enter car and not a money-to-loan office."

Drop in Sunday night.

EAT À LA DOG CARTE.

One on Billy

Billy: Is that right, Gare?

Gare: No, sir.

Billy: Well, what's the matter with it?

Gare: (meekly) It's wrong.

Famous Sayings of Famous Men

"Billy"—"That'll do, thank ye."

"Sid" Haskell—"No, that's wrong, but thank you just the same."

"Doc" Gordon—"Hurry up! Hurry up!"

"Blokie"—"Take that hand down!"

"Squirt"—"And what not?"

White—"Arnold Arboretum."

"Baldy"—"What does the book say?"

Sprague—"Let's suppose."

Harrison—"Now-er-er-Now-er."

Lockwood—"What can you say concerning—"

Stone—"I did it."

Butman—"With the compliments of the author."

Class Statistics

Who is the handsomest man in the class?

Stan Freeborn wins in a walk out over a large list of entries. Mike Brewer comes in second place.

The most versatile man in the class?

Jack "Hutch" gets the honors hands down.

The most respected?

Dick Powers clears the field and comes in out of sight of the others.

The biggest grind?

Henry Clay fills the title role and is ably supported by Jeff Calvert and Churchill. Last year was the banner season for this entertaining trio.

The brightest man?

Bennett Porter gets first honors with Christie close behind.

The most popular?

This vote goes to Det Jones by a large majority. Dick Powers is next in line.

The nerviest man in the class?

It certainly takes nerve to tell a careful of returning Informalites that the car is "off the irons" and they'll have to get out; but Ed Hazen was the man for the job, and he gets this vote. Fred Read claims second place in this event.

The laziest man in the class?

Tit Tarbell, our bloated bondholder, still follows along the line of least resistance and drops down at the first available place in this event. His confreres for whom he is waiting seem, by the vote, to be Rod Harris and "Jawn" Pellett.

The grouchiest man?

Tower gets the biggest vote with Clark taking his dust close behind.

The wittiest man?

Brother Payne stands alone in his glory.

The best-dressed man?

Fred Read is generally conceded to be the best specimen of sartorial perfection seen on the campus.

The best athlete?

Mike Brewer easily carries off this honor. His opponents are left so far in the background as to be nearly out of sight.

The windiest?

We have another celebrated trio with us this evening, consisting of Bull Reid, Ed. Hazen and Blondy Bokelund. They are all officers of the "line" with "Bull" holding the greatest honors.

The freshest?

Here we have Chick with us again. He stands out in full view in this capacity.

The least appreciated?

Jeff Calvert nearly lost this honor, which was generally accorded him the morning he appeared with the black and yellow sweater on. Henry Clay is confrere of Jeff as usual.

The greatest fusser?

Harry Brown is the past master in fussing. He has taken lectures, lab. and practical courses in the science and is some authority.

The most likely to succeed?

According to the vote Dick Powers leads in this with Det Jones following a close second.

Who is the best teacher?

Billy is the man. In spite of promises that he'll stick ye, Billy is there with the teaching stuff.

The most difficult to recite to?

Billy is again in the limelight.

The hardest to bluff?

Evidently the class has had some experience in bluffing, for it is quite certain that "Sid" Haskell is the hardest to bluff.

1914 INDEX 1914

The most broad minded?

"Mack" takes first in this one.

The most popular?

We all swear by Prof. Osmun in this detail.

The grouchiest?

Butman gets the biggest vote by long odds.

The handsomest teacher?

"Dunc" is considered by the majority of the class to be the Apollo of our Faculty.

The best lecturer?

"Jocko" is warmly advocated by all the entomologists as being the Prof. with the most pleasing oratorical effects.

The windiest?

"Squirt" receives the vote for being the most apt representative of the windy city on the Faculty.

And So Young, Too.

“Squirt” (in Journalism) Here’s a report of a man who bet he could drink a quart of whiskey at a gulp. He died. Now let’s have that written up—I might as well give it to someone familiar with the subject—absentmindedly passes ‘fimsy’ to Needham.

Asleep Again!

Billy: Reid, what is the sine of theta?

Bull: (thinking of mother and the farm) Five cows.

Prof. Lockwood: We will take 44 pages in advance for to-morrow.

Voice: (in the rear) Louder.

BANQUET OF THE SOPHOMORES.

WITH THE PRESIDENT AS GUEST.

Massachusetts Agricultural College
Students Not Cast Down by Football Defeat.

---

"Boost old 'Aggie'" was the slogan at the banquet of the class of 1914 of the Massachusetts agricultural college held at the Henking cafe last evening, printed on the menu and echoed in every one of the speeches. The banquet was attended by about 100 members of the sophomore class, with whom President Kenyon L. Butterfield of the college was present, as the guest of honor.

The Faculty Baseball Match

NOT long ago the Faculty got to feeling giddy and decided to choose up and have a little baseball game. As usual it took them six weeks to get into action and take the field. The game started at 9.30 A. M. and at 4.30 P. M. had progressed to the eighth inning.

Things were commencing to get exciting. Only ten runs were needed to tie the score and the head of the batting list was up. It was our old friend Dean Mills "by gosh," strutting up to the plate (you know how he can strut) his whiskers playing to the breezes and that never-to-be-forgotten smile decorating his map. But he fooled them all, for he whaled the first one over, and, say, did he run? I should say he did. He stretched it into a homer and then modestly withdrew to see to his cuts.

Next up comes Bill Hart. There was no smile on his face. He forgot how to many years ago. He stood there at the plate like a dead one, waiting for a good ball. Three of them came over and still he stood there. On investigation it was found that he was not dead but only sleeping. "Your out!" roared Blokic, giving the high sign with his stick. Still Bill stood by. Again, "Your out!" boomed in his ear. "Thanks," murmured Bill. "So I see, but how did I get dressed and who let me out?"

Now came Roaring Bill Lockwood, whirling his bat like a churn. Then he commenced to peddle his line to the pitcher, "Skim her over the dish, old man, and I'll curdle one over the fence so quick that you can't tell whether it's a junk of cheese or 6% butter fat."

Graham slides down the coaching line and cackles: "Now the pitcher's got a broken wing—he's pigeon-toed, chicken-breasted, goose-necked—" but right here the police removed him and jugged him for using fowl language. Lockwood connected for a double and up comes Billy. Wise Bill notices the acceleration of the ball and dopes it out how to swing with just enough velocity to produce impact sufficient to prove Newt's third law. Lockwood scores, but Billy hesitated between 2nd and 3rd to roll a cigarette and gets tagged out.

Hurd, the hope of the Faculty to start things moving, toddles up. He makes good with a swat half way to Amherst. It's ticketed for a homer and away he ambles, but as he sped by 3rd he stubbed his toe and fell. He commenced rolling but his peculiar conformation prevented his stopping and so far as we know he's going yet.

Nobody knew there were 3 out, the scorer "Shimmy" having gone for a drink, so the game proceeded. Wattles is next at bat and as the pitcher was about all in, he landed the sphere on the noddle and stretched his long legs toward third, but here the train proved too much and he fell, only to be removed by Dickie.

"Doc" Paige stood on the rubber waiting. Gage, the little dear, thought to encourage him, and clapped his hands gleefully and twittered: "Hit it, Dr., hard. Oh, so hard!" Somebody sawed the end of Doc's bat and as a result he struck out.

But it was getting dark, so it was decided to let only one more man bat. Lewis, the pitcher was all in but the buttons, although he tried to explain all the hits as owing to the fact that he didn't want to discourage the men.

Gates was last man up. Things looked ripe for a victory. Doc swung fiercely disturbing one of his pet swarms which he always carries. They spread and the game broke up in a riot.

THE BONE OF CONTENTION

Don't grow cider apples. Rid your trees of scale and fungous pests and grow number one apples by using "Scalecide"—the one absolutely sure scale spray. "Scalecide" is easy to handle, it will not clog or corrode the nozzle or injure the skin. It will build up a poorly paying, run down orchard and make it return large profits. It will maintain a good orchard in prime condition. "Scalecide" is the best spray for San Jo e. It kills every scale it reaches. "Scalecide" goes further, is cheaper and more effective than lime sulphur. Endorsed by Experiment Stations and used by the best orchardists everywhere. "Scalecide" will solve your scale problem. Our SERVICE DEPARTMENT furnishes everything for the orchard. Write to-day for our new booklet "Pratt's Handbook for Fruit Growers" and "Scalecide—the Tree Saver." They contain valuable information for orchardists. Every fruit grower should have them. Both are free. B. G. Pratt Co., Dept. 50 Church Street, New York City.

MASSACHUSETTS COLLEGE

The Massachusetts Agricultural College is a public service institution, the function of which is to benefit the agriculture and rural life of the state and incidentally that of the nation.

In the fulfillment of its mission the College undertakes the work of Investigation, Resident Instruction, and Extension Service.

Investigation follows three distinct lines: (1) scientific research, through which are discovered new laws governing the growth of plants and animals; (2) experimentation, which seeks to ascertain the best methods of applying science to practice; and (3) the agricultural survey or inventory of agricultural conditions and possibilities.

The purpose of Instruction given to resident students is to prepare them for the agricultural vocations and also to train them in the principles of good citizenship. Students pursuing the regular four years' course may specialize in any of the following named departments:

Agriculture	General Horticulture
Agromony	Floriculture
Animal Husbandry	Forestry
Dairying	Landscape Gardening
Poultry Husbandry	Pomology
Agricultural Chemistry
Economic Entomology
Plant Physiology and Pathology
Agricultural Education

Undergraduate courses are also offered in a large number of departments the work of which is not arranged as a "major".

The Graduate School admits college graduates for advanced study in agriculture, botany, chemistry, entomology, horticulture, mathematics, veterinary science, and zoology.

The task of the Extension Service is to disseminate agricultural knowledge to all people of the state having rural interests, and to assume an attitude of leadership or of cooperation in various activities, educational, social, or economic, which tend to benefit agriculture and country life.

AGRICULTURAL

Amherst, Mass.

Thousands of persons are directly reached each year by the Extension Service. Some of the types of work organized by this branch of the College are:

Winter School of Agriculture
Summer School of Agriculture

Conference of Rural Social Workers
Correspondence Courses in Agriculture
Itinerant Schools of Agriculture
Educational Exhibits
Demonstration Orchards
Boys' and Girls' Clubs
Traveling Libraries
District Field Agencies
Lecture Courses

Five Facts of Interest About the Massachusetts Agricultural College

1. It trains men for vocations not yet overeroded.
2. It offers courses of study in 26 departments of academic instruction covering the fields of Agriculture, Horticulture, Sciences, Humanities, and Rural Social Science.
3. Its enrollment of students in four years' courses exceeds 500 in number.
4. Its field of service is the entire state.
5. Its educational advantages are practically free.

THERE the world is at your feet. There the radiant beauty of the landscape reveals itself in infinite variety. You see mountains like great billows, with deep, far shadowy valleys between; long uplands with slender spires rising here and there from clustered homes; green meadows, fallow fields and stretches of woodland; busy cities and towns whose sounds of human toil cannot penetrate the repose of this grand height; the "Long River," with a history overflowing with legend and tradition, sweeping proudly by through mountain pass and lovely banks to the sea, winding for many a mile within the boundaries of this noble outlook.
